Incentive for Student Practice

(Make as many practice sheets as you want).

Last year 94 students from 10 schools earned 280 tickets to the Y S and Classical Orchestra Concert practicing a total of 39,000 minutes.

Who is this for? Instrumental students in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8.

What is it? Practice 200 minutes in one week and receive prizes.

What are the prizes? For every practice sheet turned in a student will receive:

One ticket to Sunday, February 27, 2011, 3:00 pm in DeVos Hall
Youth Symphony & Classical Concert and

A music card at the reception table in the lobby the day of the concert.

Lucky music cards will be drawn for a $100.00 prize & handed out by John Varineau during the concert.

Simple for the teacher? Yes, just sign the practice sheet to validate that the student is in good standing with your instrumental group. (Please also print your name on the form so we can enter your name in a contest for teachers - win a $50.00 gift certificate to fine dining Restaurant. Every teacher who is represented by a student who enters the 200 Minute Practice Project is eligible to win.).

How do students enter? Students can send or fax practice sheets to Youth Symphony. (Make sure students print clearly and do not write "lightly" so we can read the practice sheets.) There is enough time for students to complete four practice sheets before the deadline of Friday, February 18, 2011.

What if I have questions? Call Mary Pestana 616-452-4428 or mpestana@mail.gvsu.edu
